We're Hiring! YOUNG COACH DEVELOPMENT

Location: SotoTennis Academy, Sotogrande, Spain
Start: September 2025

Are you an ambitious, developing coach looking to grow in a high-performance environment?

The SotoTennis Academy Young Coach Development Programme has a strong track record of helping early-career coaches gain valuable experience and exposure to international-level tennis. This year, we're also looking for someone with a strong playing background, as the role includes hitting with our top players. Hear directly from STA Director, Dan Kiernan, about the role here!

We're looking for someone who:

- Is early in their coaching journey (ideally Level 2 or 3 qualified) and eager to learn / is a full-time tennis player looking to support their career
- Is a strong player, capable of hitting with national/international-level athletes
- Has a great attitude, work ethic, and willingness to develop
- Is available from September 2025 through summer 2026

What you'll gain:

- Hands-on experience supporting elite junior players
- Mentoring and development in a leading international academy
- A valuable mix of coaching, hitting, and professional growth

If you're serious about building a career in performance tennis coaching, this is the ideal next step.
